Your application for a license, as captioned above, has been approved and a license certificate may be issued upon submission of the items listed on the attached page(s). The State Liquor Authority will then review your application together with the material submitted in order to determine whether a license certificate is issuable.*

No license may be issued until you comply with the attached conditions. Failure to comply with the conditions within 6 months, from the date of this letter, will render your application subject to denial. If you cannot comply within the 6 month period, you may seek an extension of time by submitting a request in writing to the Authority. If you wish to withdraw your application, you must request your withdrawal in writing. The State Liquor Authority will then disapprove your application without prejudice to your refile at a future date and will process your refund (less the filing fee).

Sincerely Yours,

Fred J. Gioffre, Deputy Commissioner

*NOTE: IF YOU WISH TO PICK UP YOUR LICENSE IN PERSON, 24 HOUR NOTICE AND A PHOTO I.D. ARE REQUIRED. NO LICENSE CAN BE ISSUED AFTER 3:30 P.M.!

NOTE: FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE ATTACHED CONDITIONS WITHIN 6 MONTHS FROM 05/18/2006 WILL RENDER YOUR APPLICATION SUBJECT TO DENIAL.

cc: PESETSKY, WARREN B ESQ

Please take notice that your application for a retail license is hereby disapproved by the State Liquor Authority for the reasons listed on the attached page.

The applicant may request the members of the Authority to review the matter if the applicant so desires. Such a request for review should be accompanied by a statement setting forth any facts which the applicant feels may refute the Authority's reasons for disapproval.

A request will be forwarded to the State Comptroller to refund to you the license fee deposited at the time of filing your application. As prescribed by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law, this refund will not include the filing fee.

The amount subject to refund is $ _____.
